

Bookmarks

An outline, for anything longer than a scroll.

A reader shows these in its sidebar. Worth having the moment a document is longer than a scroll — a statement of account over twelve pages, an academic CV, a consignment with four hundred lines.

This document has three, one per page. Open the sidebar.

Detail

Bookmarked at the top of this page. A bookmark records the page being written and the height it was set at, so it lands where it was put rather than at the top of whatever page happens to be current.
